

BPL will ruin amateur radio. The United States government should realize by now what a great resource amateur radio is. And the FCC also knows that utility companys cause a great deal of interference to amateur radio already. This will make it practically useless. Count this as a "no" vote for BPL. Michael Brown, K9MI